

Hey friends are you READY for a great time at Emmanuel Lutheran's ROAR VBS?

It's almost here!!! (It starts Monday, July 8th and goes to Friday, July 12th)

Everyone keeps asking two very important questions:

WHAT TIME does DINNER start on Monday, July 8th ?

5:30 pm (unless you are a volunteer – then come at 5).

And WHAT's THE COLOR of the DAY for MONDAY?

It's RED!!!

Why? Just because we like Red! It's a great color.

So are these other colors:

COLORS OF THE DAY:

Mon: RED

Tues: Green

Wed: Blue

Thurs: Yellow

Fri: Your Favorite Color

This is totally optional and absolutely NOT mandatory, but if it helps you tap into your VBS spirit, we absolutely encourage you to WEAR the COLOR of the DAY.

Other fun things to wear this week include anything that reminds you of Africa, our African animals like my friends:

Mack the rhinoceros – our bible memory buddy for Monday!

Hooper the Hoopoe bird – our bible memory buddy for Tuesday.

Marge, the African Cape Buffalo – our bible memory buddy for Wednesday.

Jambo , the Meerkat – my friend helping us all Week in the preschool room.

And last but not least, Savannah, the Giraffe – our bible memory buddy for Friday.

What about Thursday you ask? Well that's me of course! Zion, the Lion. I'll be taking a lot of "pride" in sharing the Bible story of the day to you that day. Ha! Get it? "Pride"? (Oh, I just can't get over myself. I'm so funny!)

Well anyway... that's all the news from the African Serengeti for today. Can't wait to see you all on Monday!
